Requirements for BME Option

BME Option: Students registering for the graduate option are required to take a minimum of six (6) credit hours of BMES-designated courses, perform graduate research in biomedical engineering (the advisor must be affiliated with SBES in some capacity), support the BME program by attending five seminars per semester, and by attending and pr senting a poster at the annual SBES Symposium every year until graduation. When the student is preparing to graduate, a formal letter signifying satisfactory completion of the requirements will be generated and sent to the graduate school to notify them to have the Option placed on the graduate transcript. It is the student's responsibility to ask the SBES Graduate Coordinator to generate the completion letter.

As a BME option applicant, I hereby give my home department permission to share a copy of my student file with the SBES graduate office:
